Greetings to you all,

Market Day:

Thanks again for the wonderful support shown at our schools market day last Friday. Exceedingly proud of stupendous work undertaken by our students.

Mr James Nyssen:

Sadly we farewell Mr Nyssen tomorrow. His service is at 11.30am at the Catholic Sacred Heart Church. Staff, children and B.O.T. wish to send their heartfelt condolences to his whanau at this extremely sad time. James will be missed. He has helped many children here at school with improving their reading and self confidence.

Hikoi Meeting: (all to attend)

Tuesday 14th November. 6pm , Room 5.

School Photos:

Our school photos will be taken on the 14th November. Forms were sent out earlier this week. Please contact Leonie in the office if you have any questions.

Teachers Only Day—Friday 24th November:

On Friday 24th November, all Northern Wairoa Primary Schools will be attending a NZ Curriculum Refresh Day. (Te ao tangata/Social Sciences including NZ Histories). This will not impact the Hikoi students who will be on camp.

Basketball:

Our team had another good win. We are definitely improving week by week. Well done team.

Sport was a winner:

How good were the Kiwi's beating Oz 30 - 0 (yes nil)

Not so joyous our Blackferns losing to a very tough English side.

Black Caps are through to semi final's of World Cup. They will play India.

Weather looks great for a fish this weekend.
